

A Poem for My Mémé

Mémé.....Up in the sky
Where Heaven lies
There's someone that means a lot to me

And I can't deny
Even if I try
That I'll miss her for eternity

And as time goes by
I know I'll still cry
Even though I know she's safe with you

That perfect smile
Seen from a mile
I know that one day I'll see it through

All those perfect times
These meaningful rhymes
I know that words can't even describe her

But with family nearby
We all kiss you goodbye
Knowing that we will see you again

And when times get rough
And they seem too tough
I'll think of you and your helping hand

And when everything's down
And I begin to frown
You'd tell me to be a man!

And after awhile
You'd make me smile
And I wouldn't be able to wipe it away

And then we'd play
Card games all day
You, me and the family

But no matter
How hard we tried
I knew we all couldn't keep you

And soon time
Catches up to us
And we all get to see a preview

As each one of us
Is taken by God
We all learn a small lesson

Live your life
Love your friends
And keep memories with a blessing

And soon one day
We'll meet in glory
And have some time to share

The memories of
Friends and family
That we kept without a dare

Love your granddaughter,
Chantelle
